The interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Sri Lanka Accounting Standard (LKAS) 34- Interim financial reporting.

3.1 Going Concern

In determining the basis of preparing the financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2021, based on available information, the management has assessed the existing and anticipated effects of COVID 19 on the Group Companies and the appropriateness of the use of the going concern basis. The Group evaluated the resilience of its businesses considering a wide range of factors under multiple scenarios, relating to expected revenue, cost management, profitability, ability to defer non-essential capital expenditure, debt repayment reschedulements, and the amount of undrawn borrowing facilities, and potential sources of financing facilities.

Having evaluated each company of Jetwing Symphony Group by the Board of Directors, and after due consideration of the range and likelihood of outcomes, the Directors are satisfied that the Company and its subsidiaries have adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future and continue to adopt the going concern basis in preparing and presenting these consolidated financial statements.

4. Changes in Accounting Policies

These interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out in the Annual Report for the year ended 31.03.2020.
